

PMAQ QUESTIONS	A	B	C	D
A law with retroactive effect is	ex officio	ipso facto	ante tempus	ex post facto
MOS MAIORUM means	the month of May	the greatest amount	the custom of our ancestors	a greater delay
RES NOVAE means	revolution	debt	grain	nine things
TO MANAGE AFFAIRS OF STATE is	negotium gerere	bellum gerere	se gerere	rem publicam gerere
FAS EST is best translated	it is fatal	it is wrong	it is right	it is unusual
DELENDAM EST CARTHAGO was the warning pronounced again and again by	Horatius	Cincinnatus	Brutus	Cato
The SENATUS CONSULTUM ULTIMUM was	an indictment	an ordinary decree	a veto	a decree to establish martial law
We identify the PAX ROMANA with	Augustus	Sulla	Romulus	Scipio
The houses reflected the ANTEBELLUM period.	prehistoric	Renaissance	prewar	modern
A fitting motto to mark the establishment of a country might be	novus ordo saeculorum	de mortuis nil nisi bonum	ars gratia artis	cum grano salis
Which one of the following expresses a thought completely different from the others?	Labor omnia vincit	Maxime laborandum est	Labor mihi non placet	Nihil sine magne labore
The abbreviation A.U.C. (ab urbe condita) refers to	a senatorial decree	a military formation	a system of numbering years	the dedication of a temple
The boy was considered a RARA AVIS by his friends. A rara avis is	an unusual person	an average student	a generous friend	an unreliable teammate
My parent only gave me one CAVEAT about living in a strange city.	a bit of information	favorable thought	argument	warning
When the poet Juvenal talked about the PANEM ET CIRCENSES, he was referring to	entertaining the common people	cheering a victorious general	making a sacrifice	shopping in the marketplace
Romani milites NON SOLUM pro patria pugnauerunt SED ETIAM vias aedificaverunt.	not alone ... but together with	neither ... nor	not some ... but others	not only ... but also
At the king's death, his son claimed power DE JURE.	with arrogance	by law	with hesitation	by force
A defendant in a court case enters a plea of NOLO CONTENDERE when he	asks that his bail be lowered	does not want to contest the charge	seeks a change in lawyers	appeals his conviction
The motto AUT VIAM INVENIAM AUT FACIAM expresses	honesty	determination	fear	joy
PER CONTRA (Latin) and AU CONTRAIRE (French) are both used to mean	most of the time	quite the opposite	I agree completely	please be patient
If you are looking for a job, you might be asked to submit an account of your qualifications, called a	pro forma	dramatis personae	habeas corpus	curriculum vitae
CAVEAT EMPTOR means:	empty cave	beware the dog	to each his own	let the buyer beware
"Est enim mundus quasi communis deorum domus" is an example of:	metaphor	personification	simile	chiasmus
"DOTEM NON UXOR MARITO SED UXORI MARITUS OFFERT," is a quotation from Tacitus concerning	warfare	education	marriage	burial customs
The congressional committee adjourned SINE DIE,	until the next day	without delay	without a specified day for reconvening	without completing their agenda
The Latin phrase PASSIM, found in an index, means:	in the same place	here and there	the following	compare

PMAQ QUESTIONS	A	B	C	D
VIZ. is the abbreviation for VIDELICET meaning:	namely	for example	see above	note well
Cicero was given the title PATER PATRIAE in recognition of his suppression of the	pirates	graft in the province of Sicily	Pisonian conspiracy	Catilinarian conspiracy
The expression "God willing" is a translation of	Nihil sine Deo	Deo volente	Deo iuvante	In Deo speramus
Which of these Latin idioms means "caught in the act"?	habeas corpus	lapsus linguae	corpus delicti	in flagrante delicto
Numerus coniuratorum IN DIES crescit.	during the day	toward dawn	one day	day by day
The phrase NOVUS ORDO SECLORUM, found on the U.S. dollar bill, means:	might makes right	a new order of the ages	one out of many	He has smiled on our undertakings
The pharmacist uses the abbreviation H.S. (HORA SOMNI) to instruct a patient to take his medication:	at breakfast	three times a day	after lunch	at bedtime
Seneca's quotation, "HOMINES, DUM DOCENT, DISCUNT."	Men teach those willing to learn	Men avoid those who teach	Learned men teach	Men learn as they teach
When the congressman said "MEA CULPA" at his press conference, he meant:	"I resign"	"I made a mistake"	"Vote for me"	"Victory is mine"
The Latin word for COMPARE is represented in English by the abbreviation:	viz.	ca.	cf.	Cu.
The SENATUS CONSULTUM was:	the senate house	the prison for political prisoners	a decree of the senate	an introductory remark by a tribune
The speaker responded to the question with a NON SEQUITUR.	summary of what we asked	another question	statement that does not follow the line of questioning	cogent argument
The salutation "Si vales benest. Ego valeo." often abbreviated S.V.B.E.V. was used by a Roman:	at a funeral site	to end a speech	at the beginning of a letter	in prayer
The expression "to cross the Rubicon" means:	to flee from the enemy	to make an irrevocable decision	to make a mistake	to tell a lie
The Roman author Seneca said, "QUIDQUID BENE DICTUM EST ab ullo, meum est."	Who said it well	Whatever has been said well	Whatever word is good	Any speech is good
Which most closely resembles the Latin expression SUUM CUIQUE?	He is his own man	What is mine is yours	To his own advantage	To each his own
"Delenda est Carthago" is a famous phrase uttered by the Censor Cato with reference to:	the eruption of Vesuvius	the Punic Wars	the fall of the Roman Republic	the plot against Julius Caesar
An editor uses the term ERRATA to denote	mistakes in the text	items of particular interest	an original source	other sources available
The modern message conveyed by the Latin expression ARS LONGA, VITA BREVIS is	Life imitates art	Art outlasts the human life	Art can threaten life	Life and art are inseparable
ESSE QUAM VIDERI, the motto of the state of North Carolina, is closest in meaning to	Mens sana in corpore sano	Facta non verba	E pluribus unum	Ad astra per aspera
"Quae cum ita sint" an expression often used by Cicero means	What about these things	Since these things are so	Bear with these things	There are many such things
The abbreviation ET SEQ. means	and others	it does not follow	and the following	in the same place
Which of the following is closest in meaning to the Latin DE MORTUIS NIHIL NISI BONUM?	Speak only good about the dead	Good always triumphs over wrong	Only the good die young	Good actions never die

PMAQ QUESTIONS	A	B	C	D
Where would one usually encounter a MAGISTER BIBENDI in Roman society?	on a military campaign	at a banquet	in the arena	at a school
If everyone in a group expresses a different opinions about a controversial issue, the conversation could be concluded by saying	caveat emptor	exempli gratia	suum cuique	de facto
What is the appropriate answer to: POTESNE LATINE LOQUI?	Audio.	Habeo unam sororem.	Gaudeo.	Possum.
What Latin phrase can be used to indicate an assertion made on authority, but not proved?	ipse dixit	et alia	lapsus linguae	quid pro quo
What Latin expression refers to a criminal's pattern of behavior?	modus operandi	sine die	infra dignitatem	summum bonum
The symbol RX, used with prescriptions to mean "Take," comes from the Latin word	Rumpe	Recipe	Ride	Rege
The unique student who refused to give in to peer pressure was considered ____ by his classmates.	festina lente	ars gratia artis	in medias res	sui generis
SCILICET, abbreviated SC., is a contraction of the Latin words SCIRE and LICET. SCILICET means	one should permit it	it is permitted to know	it is agreed	don't worry about it
To show frustration with current behaviors, one might exclaim	Cave canem!	O tempora! O mores!	Possunt quia posse videntur!	Nosce te ipsum!
Before the big interview, Robert polished up his C.V. or resume. He abbreviation C.V. is short for CURRICULUM ____.	valetudinis	vivum	vitae	verum
A Latin student exclaims, "Me taedet huius pensi! She thinks her homework is	interesting	confusing	fun	boring