

ARCHITECTURE QUESTIONS	A	B	C	D
The architecture of the Pantheon is distinguished by the	rounded arch	dome	spire	peristyle
The archaeologist who discovered ancient Troy was:	Lord Elgin	Robert Graves	Sir Arthur Evans	Heinrich Schliemann
Augustus commissioned Agrippa to build in honor of all the gods what famous monument which still stands today?	Pantheon	Colosseum	Forum	Curia
The AX AND RODS which symbolize Roman authority are called:	lictors	fasces	imperium	triumph
Archaeological treasures and artifacts from the city of ___ are being exhibited in America to commemorate a catastrophe which occurred in 79 A.D.	Troy	Pompeii	Alexandria	Carthage
The most ornate of the three classical orders of architecture, having a capital decorated with acanthus leaves, is called:	Doric	Ionic	Baroque	Corinthian
The hill on the west bank of the Tiber at Rome, which served as a defensive outpost, and was later incorporated into the Aurelian Wall is called the:	Mamertine	Janiculum	Campus Martius	Ara Pacis
The first temples built by the Romans show the influence of earlier Italian inhabitants, the _____.	Oscans	Etruscans	Sabines	Gauls
A monument built by Augustus to celebrate an Empire without civil strife is the:	Ara Pacis	Colosseum	Curia	Cloaca Maxima
An AMPHORA would be used for	measuring distances	riding horses	storing wine	writing letters
The monument built by Augustus to commemorate the end of civil war is the	Domus Aurea	Temple of Jupiter	Colosseum	Ara Pacis
Which of the Five Good Emperors of Rome not only built an elaborate villa at Tivoli, but also restored the Pantheon in Rome?	Constantine	Nero	Hadrian	Augustus