

LITERARY DEVICES QUESTIONS	A	B	C	D
"...suadentque cadentia sidera somnos." This is an example of:	anaphora	asyndeton	alliteration	aposiopesis
"Bis conatus erat casus effingere in auro; bis patriae CECIDERE manus.	will fall	had fallen	to have fallen	fell
"CONTICUERE omnes, intentique ora tenebat."	to fall silent	while falling silent	fell silent	will fall silent
"Dissimulare etiam SPERASTI, perfide, tantum posse nefas? The best translation of sperasti is:	are you hoping	did you hope	should you hope	will you hope
"Extemplo Libyae magnas it Fama per urbes" is an example of:	onomatopoeia	personification	hendiadys	alliteration
"HIC, Dolopum manus, HIC saevus tendebat Achilles: classibus HIC locus, HIC acie certare solebant"	anaphora	alliteration	personification	simile
"INTONUERE poli et crebris micat ignibus aetherÖ"	about to thunder	thundering	thundered	to have thundered
"Non ignara mali, miseris succerrere disco." illustrates the rhetorical figure:	oxymoron	metaphor	personification	litotes
"Non indebita posco regna meis fatis" illustrates the poetic figure:	metonymy	zeugma	oxymoron	litotes
"Nymphae summo in vertice ULULAVERUNT." Ululaverunt is an example of:	chiasmus	alliteration	metonymy	onomatopoeia
A PECULIUM was an allowance given to Roman slaves: a PECULIOLUM, as the suffix indicates was a	large sum of money	promise of an inheritance	small savings account	heavy fine levied by a court
Amor meus cecidit VELUT FLOS aratro tactus.	or a flower	after a flower	a flower in truth	just as a flower
CONTICUERE OMNES, intentique ora tenebant.	all became silent	all will become silent	all would become silent	all are becoming silent
CUI DONO NOVUM LIBELLUM? The use of LIBELLUM instead of the more conventional LIBRUM indicates	the author's feelings toward his little work	the number of copies published	the expensive papyrus on which it was published	the popularity of the author
Cum senatores in curiam praetores CONVOCASSENT, tamen consules aberant. The underlined word is a syncopated form of:	convoceras	convocaturi essent	convocavissent	convocati essent
Donum tibi dabo quod di immortales meae puellae DONARUNT.	have given	give	will give	were giving
ENTELLUS ERAT VELUT QUI URBEM OPPUGNAT is an example of	anaphora	oxymoron	simile	hendiadys
FULSERE quondam candidi soles.	did shine	shine	to shine	will shine
Habe tibi quidquid hoc LIBELLI.	of a big book	of a little book	of a book	of such a book
Ilium omnes RISERE.	laughed at	laughing at	laughs at	will laugh at
Ille MI par esse deo videtur.	with me	my	to me	myself
In a line of Latin poetry DOCUERUNT might be written in the alternate form.	docuere	docueris	docuisse	docuerant
In poetry, the forms SUPERUM and DEUM may mean:	the gods	of the gods	for the gods	by the gods
In rebus hominum DI saepe se imposuerunt.	to the gods	of the god	by the god	the gods
In this example of ellipsis, DUX FEMINA FACTI, what Latin word has been omitted?	cum	et	quae	est
Laeti nautae coronas in naves IMPOSUERE.	had placed	are placing	will placed	placed

LITERARY DEVICES QUESTIONS	A	B	C	D
Lesbia MI dicit semper male.	from me	for me	to me	by me
Liber: libellus::book: _____	books	large book	famous book	small book
Mensa remota, senes somnum PETIVERE.	you will seek	seek	sought	to be sought
MULTUM IN PARVO is an example of the figure of speech known as	anaphora	hendiadys	oxymoron	simile
NON NULLI discipuli versus Lucreti legebant.	None	Each	All	Some
NON NULLI sunt qui mihi credant.	Many	None	All	Some
OCULI TURGIDULI meae puellae flendo rubent.	little swollen eyes	exceedingly puffy eyes	large angry eyes	fairly red eyes
Omnes naves litus Italiae TETIGERE.	touched	to touch	about to touch	to have touched
Pegasus QUASI avis per caelum volavit.	as if	and	although	because
Poets frequently make use of diminutives in their works. Which of the following is an example of a diminutive?	navigo	nauta	navigatum	navicula
Quis scit cur TALIA fecerit?	in this way	such things	what kind	so great
Servae panem vinumque in mensa POSUERE.	placed	are placing	place!	to place
The best translation for the syncopated verb AUDIERAT is ____	he had heard	he hears	he will have heard	he was hearing
The example of anaphora in the line PER MARE, PER TERRAS, PER TERTIA NUMINE IURO is characterized by	an implied comparison	the affirmative expressed by denying its opposite	substitution of one word for another of close meaning	repetition of the same word at the beginning of successive clauses
The motto of the state of Wyoming is "Cedant arma togae." In this phrase TOGAE is an example of the rhetorical figure:	simile	metonymy	hyperbole	oxymoron
The patronymic AENEADAЕ refers to the ____ of Aeneas.	wealth	opponents	descendants	ancestors
The poetic form POSUERE is translated:	to place	they have placed	placing	having been placed
The suffix -ULA indicates that the noun NAVICULA is	small	old	damaged	beautiful
The use of MARTEM INDOMITUM to mean INGENTEM PUGNAM illustrates using the poetic figure:	metonymy	zeugma	oxymoron	synchysis
The verb forms AMASSET, EXPLICASSET, and IMPLESSEM are syncopated forms missing the letters	-ere-	-nt-	-vi-	-ba-
The words QUALIS, VELUT, and SICUT are signals for	ellipsis	alliteration	simile	hendiadys
The words QUASI, VELUT, and CEU are used to introduce what figure of speech?	personification	metonymy	simile	onomatopoeia
The words sicut and velut are likely to introduce the rhetorical figure known as	oxymoron	alliteration	anaphora	simile
TUNE SPERASTI me relinquere?	Did you hope?	Are you hoping?	Listening	Listen
Tune, Aeneas, SPERASTI me relinquere?	are you hoping	did you hope	had you hoped	would you hope
Viri Dardani terram antiquam COLUERE.	will inhabit	had inhabited	inhabited	inhabiting
What figure of speech can be found in the line CATILINA NOBILE GENERE FUIT, SED INGENIO MALO?	anaphora	asyndeton	hyperbole	chiasmus

LITERARY DEVICES QUESTIONS	A	B	C	D
What figure of speech is present in this line? Plangere nuda meis conabar pectora palmis.	simile	synchysis	polysyndeton	anaphora
What sort of gift is a MUNUSCULUM?	official document of thanks	deed to property	small present	useful tool
Which of the following is a diminutive?	bonus	acriter	navicula	navis
Which of these Vergilian phrases contains a SIMILE?	qualis equos Threissa fatigat Harpalyce	Quos ego - ! Sed motos praestat	tantaene animis caelestibus irae?	magno miscere murmure pontum
Which word shows by its ending a smallness or fondness?	animula	otiosus	addenda	moribundus